

New Courthouse Taking Shape

The big hole in the ground that for several months has been the only replacement for Perry County's old court house is starting to fill up now with the foundation of a brand new structure. Progress of the building is notable from day to day as workmen of the W.D. Johnston Construction Company hasten to complete excavation and ground-work before the coming severe winter weather. The $818,000 building is scheduled to be completed by next summer.

Appalachian Committee Man Gets Threat Note

A note threatening the safety of a member of the Appalachian Committee For Full Employ- ment was reported to Kentucky State Police here this week, ac- cording to a story in the Louis- ville Courier-Journal.

The note was reportedly thrown on the porch of Charley Moore, a member of the orga- nizations executive committee. "Moore get out of Kentucky or you will come up worse than Combs," the note said.

Hamish Sinclair, an advisor to the Appalachian Committee, said the reference was appar- ently to Jason Combs, a Perry County minister and chairman of the committee's executive board whose home at Combs was struck by bullets the night of October 6.

Campaign Nears End With Big Election Day Only 96 Hours Away

The fall political campaign season will come to a sudden stop next Tues- day when an anticipated record number of voters all across the nation confer positions of formal leadership upon hundreds of candidates now battling it out for positions ranging from local school board members to the Presidency of the United States.

Echoes of campaign oratory will fade into the air on Tuesday as voters make their way to the polls. Thousands of placards, handbills, cards, and bumper stickers that contribute much of the traditional color of an American cam- paign will amount to no more than waste paper as they litter the ground for voters to walk upon on their way to the polls.

The 1964 campaign has been, according to many observers, one of the most vicious in the memory of old-time politicians. The Democrats have accused Republican candidate Barry Gold- water of everything from stupidity to fascism, while the Republicans have retorted with accu- sations that President Johnson is a Socialist and personally immoral.

According to the polls, President Johnson will sweep the nation with an overwhelming triumph over his conservative rival. But Sen- ator Goldwater's backers remain confident that the polls are wrong, that a strong grassroots vote will send Mr. Goldwater to the White House.

The local political scene, on the surface at least, is relatively tranquil. The major parties have well-decorated headquarters in downtown Hazard, and traffic in and out of both of them has remained fairly steady since they opened.

But reports from out in the county belie the tranquil aspect of the party headquarters, particularly with respect to the Perry County School Board race.

Always hotly-contested, the 1964 school race is no exception. Three incumbents, H. C. Sparks in District 1, Paul Campbell in District 2 and J. R. Hurt in District 3 are faced by four eager challengers.

They are Wm. (Bill) Campbell in District One, Matt Couch and Delmer C. uch in District Two, and Norman Smith in District Three.

For the first time in several years, incum- bent members of the Hazard City School Board have a challenger. He is Moscoe Blackburn, running against present board members Dr. Cooley Combs, W. W. Reeves and Paul Prety.

The candidate polling the least number of votes will be eliminated.

The question of the North Main Street Ur- ban Renewal Project is another controversial issue Hazard voters will decide upon in Tues- day's election.

Both sides are working hard in the closing days of the campaign, urging voters to approve or reject the renewal measure. Newspaper ads, radio announcements, special publications, let- ter writ- and telephone campaigns are some of the devices being used by proponents of each side.

Vicco residents will choose two City Trus- tees, which shouldn't be too hard since John Shively and Sidney Cornett are the only names on the ballot.

Perry County voters must also help choose between Carl D. Perkins, a Democrat, and Wal- ter Clay VanHuse, a Republican, for Seventh Congressional Representative.

Running for Judge of the Court of Appeals in the Seventh District are Democrat Edward P. Hill and Republican Robert B. Bird.

The polls open at 6 a.m. Tuesday and close at 5 p.m. Votes will be tabulated immediately in County Clerk Jessie Horn's office.

The razing of the old Perry County Court House has caused polls for Hazard precincts 28 and 30 to be moved to quarters on High Street in the old Lincoln Life Insurance Office, near the Perry Photography Studio, immediately behind the court house site.

Other Hazard polling places are: precinct 32, Memorial Gym, and Precinct 34, the Fire Department. Walkertown precinct 26 will vote in the Vocational School building in Walk- ertown.

Walkertown Clover-leaf Interchange Nearing Completion

What will one day be an exit from the Mountain Parkway is rapidly nearing completion in Walkertown. Workmen are expected to soon complete the blacktopping of the elaborate circular interchange that will funnel traffic off and onto the Parkway bridges lead- ing to Combs. A State Highway Department spokesman said yesterday that Department rules prohibit the laying of Blacktop after November 15, due to weather conditions. So per- haps it won't be long at all until local motorists will be trying out the new, short route to Combs, said to be the most expensive single piece of short highway construction in Ken- tucky history. Traffic will enter and leave the interchange across Kentucky 15 from the Combs Drive In.

On The Campaign Trail

Flames Destroy Jeff Home

The home of the Eli Logan family at Jeff was destroyed by fire Tuesday when flames broke out in a bedroom. Haz- ard firemen summoned to the scene were able to keep the fire from spreading to nearby houses, but the Logan home was completely lost, including most of its contents. Mrs. Logan was home with a sick child at the time, but both es- caped without injury.

Small Boy Is Killed Beneath Truck Wheels

A 4-year old boy was killed Tuesday when he darted in front of a large tractor-trailer truck on North Main Street at the Bypass intersection in Haz- ard.

He was Edward Collett Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Collett Sr., residents of the Ned Turner apartment building lo- cated near the scene of the ac- cident.

The truck, driven by Herb Stewart, Hazard, was going to- ward town when young Edward came from behind a car going the opposite direction and ran beneath the huge vehicle's wheels.

Members of the Perry County Rescue Squad hastened to the scene and carried the child to Hazard Appalachian Hospital, but he was pronounced dead on arrival.

The incident was declared an accident and Stewart was not

We Commend Judge Hill

Judge Edward P. Hill, of Prestonsburg, deserves the support of both political parties in the coming election as he seeks the office of Judge of the Court of Appeals.

He makes a powerful claim for this support, if the people are interested in service. For Judge Hill not only possesses the qualifications, gained by training and experience, but also the initiative, desire and vigor to throw himself and his abilities into doing his full share of the heavy load of work that faces appellate judges.

His opponent, as the present appellate judge from this district, has not assumed his full quota of the work-load, and it is on that important point that he has been most criticized by the legal profession.

Judge Hill's record is one which is well-known. He has served Floyd County as County Judge for 12 years. Following those years, he was Circuit Judge of the 31st judicial district for 18 years. His record speaks for itself. His sound legal judgment was attested by the fact that he seldom was reversed by the Court of Appeals. His capacity for service has been established not by one brief spurt over one term of office but over succeeding terms. And that is the test of an official or any other man—what he is and what he does over the long haul of the years.

Because his qualities as citizen, official and lawyer and the dignity and capacity for service which he would bring to the Court of Appeals, all who seek such qualities in those men who comprise the state's highest tribunal should work and vote for Judge Hill regardless of politics.

A dedicated public servant who has served 18 years as a Circuit Judge and who understands the problems of the people.

Public opinion polls indicate a landslide victory for JUDGE EDWARD P. HILL November 3.

The 1965 Ford rides quieter than a Rolls-Royce!

Prior to the introduction of the 1965 Fords, the country's leading automotive writers drove the new models at Dearborn. Most of these experts remarked about the extraordinary quietness and smoothness of the Ford ride. An automotive writer, in Mechanix Illustrated, said, "If there is a quieter car made in this country, I haven't driven it."

Quiet Means Quality... Since quiet is a traditional measure of car quality, Ford engineers designed the '65 Ford for maximum quietness. To illustrate this quality achievement, Ford chose to make a documented test against the world's finest luxury car—Rolls-Royce.

Bolt, Beranek and Newman, Inc., world's leading acoustic consultants to government and industry, conducted the tests under supervision of the authoritative United States Auto Club. All cars were tuned to factory specifications.

The Result...The Fords proved to be slightly quieter at all speeds.

The official test report reads, in part: "At all moving speeds, on both courses, the Fords were quieter than the Rolls-Royces."

The Difference... The sound level difference, to be sure, is small—but it is there. At 60 miles an hour, Ford was actually 2.8 decibels* quieter than Rolls-Royce. At 40, Ford was 5.5 decibels* quieter. At 20, Ford was 4.9 decibels* quieter. However small these advantages over Rolls-Royce may be, they are significant evidence of quality—important to anyone buying a car in Ford's class.

Fine Arts Club Members Study Works of Longfellow

The Fine Arts Club met Thursday, October 22, at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. John Evans Bowling.

The topic for the evening was one of the best-loved of all American poets, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow. After a review of his life, the members read aloud his epic poem "Evangeline." An interesting discussion followed the reading.

The hostess set up card tables about the room and distributed dried materials which she had gathered from her flower garden and the wayside. Each member using her own container, plus any materials she had brought, made an arrangement. The finished products were displayed on the stairway in the living room. These grass, weed and flower arrangements were each given a name inspired by the story of the heroine Evangeline.

The title of each design and its creator follows: "The Harvest" by Miss Mollie Ritchie; "The Burning Village" by Miss Edna Ritchie; "The Betrothal" by Miss Virginia Cecil; "Indian Summer" by Mrs. Ernest Burdick; "Lady of Mercy" by Mrs. Estill McIntyre; "Acadie" by Mrs. Clifton; "Wild Honey" by Mrs. Frank Adkins; "The Forest Primeval" by Miss Grace Combs; and "Sunshine of Eulalie" by Mrs. John Evans Bowling.

The hostess served the members hot spiced apple cider, gay little cups filled with mixed nuts and pretzels, crackers spread with tangy cheeses, and delightful little candy pumpkins.

The house was decorated throughout with arrangements of deep rust and yellow chrysanthemums. Beside the fireplace rested a large basket of red and yellow autumn leaves.

You Know He's Right

(An editorial in The Cincinnati Enquirer)

In the decade since he entered public life, Barry M. Goldwater has been telling the American people things that many of them have not enjoyed hearing.

For he has not seen politics as the art of misleading the American people, or as the trick of using the people's money to buy the people's votes, or as the science of manipulating public "images."

He has seen politics instead as a means of creating an environment in which man can grow.

Almost alone among the political figures of our time, he has had the audacity to suggest that man has the capacity for growth, that man has a mind and a spirit and a heart as well as a stomach.

This has represented a notable departure from the cynical diet to which the American voter has become accustomed.

For Senator Goldwater does not ask the American people to barter away one after another of their liberties in exchange for what the politicians are wont to call "security." He thinks—and so, once, did all Americans—that man has a higher purpose than to retire to a future of Federal handouts. He thinks—and so, once, did all Americans—that the American Revolution produced some ideals and principles that deserved sharing by men everywhere.

But America, we fear, has been seduced by a philosophy that is gradually hacking away at the tree of liberty. The practitioners of this philosophy long ago lost faith in the people and in the people's wisdom. Hence, they have appointed themselves to determine what the people need and what they must have. And in the process, they have, little by little, year by year, reworked the very fabric of America.

They began by "helping" the farmer. And now the farmer can no longer raise what he pleases. Indeed, he must even support a Department of Agriculture that sends planes over his property to see what he plants.

They began by "helping" the worker. And now the workman finds himself being spoken for on a wide variety of social issues by a self-perpetuating clique of labor politicians who have forgotten what a dinner pail looks like.

They began by "helping" the businessman. And now the businessman must prostitute himself for government contracts and the forlorn hope of immunity from bureaucratic harassment.

They began by "helping" the aged. And now the retiree finds himself penalized if he earns enough to buy himself a good cigar.

They began by "helping" the restless downtrodden. And now the streets of our cities have become veritable jungles.

Is this the America we inherited?

Is this the America we want to bequeath to our grandchildren?

For daring even to ask these questions, Barry M. Goldwater has become the most slandered man in American political history. Arrayed against him is the whole propaganda apparatus of the Federal government, to say nothing of its allies in the "liberal" establishment.

He is portrayed as a poisoner of children, as a creature of the night riders, as a pawn of the militarists and the warmongers.

To see the viciousness of the vilification heaped upon him is to begin to understand the desperation with which his enemies are trying to cling to the perverted political order they have been foisting upon America. Their purpose is to do considerably more than defeat him at the polls: they seek literally to crush him lest any other muster the courage to ask them to account for their sordid works.

The real issues of 1964 are far simpler than the defenders of entrenched statism would have us believe.

The issues boil down to whether it is the destiny of the American people to become the servants of a leviathan state at home and to cower before totalitarian aggressors abroad.

Barry Goldwater says it is not. And in your heart, you know he's right.

This is why we believe 1964 to present one of the great opportunities in America's political history. This is why we believe Senator Goldwater's election to the presidency to be the most urgent task to which the American people can devote themselves.

FALSE CHARGES AGAINST SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

Perry County Republican Chairman, Gene Combs, said today that he is amazed and very disappointed in the low level the presidential campaign has reached here in Perry County. This statement was made by Mr. Combs after hearing over the local radio station the Perry County Democratic Committee sponsored ad that says that Barry Goldwater will take the Social Security Card away from the people and the widows' payments and pensions will stop. This is nothing but BARE-FACED LIES; Mr. Combs expressed his surprise and disappointment that the local Perry County Johnson Committee would stoop this low.

The truth is, according to Mr. Combs, that the people on Social Security would have been receiving real soon a five percent increase in their Social Security payments if LYNDON BAINES JOHNSON had not had the increase killed by his majority in Congress SIMPLY BECAUSE he did not get HIS OWN SELFISH WAY. This is the way of a SELFISH, POWER-MAD man. To Heck with the American People who need this increase. Since he couldn't have his way, he had the whole Social Security increase killed in Congress.

Gene Combs believes that the People of Perry County will remember this next Tuesday and will vote for Barry Goldwater for President of the United States.

Walkertown Defeats Broadway 7-0 To Win Championship Trophy

By Darryl Hayes

Walkertown Wildcats nudged the Broadway White Eyes 7-0 Thursday, October 15, to win the championship trophy for the Hazard City Schools Football League.

Walkertown won the toss and elected to receive. They tried a double reverse and gained six yards traveling to the 42 yard line with Larry Asbury carrying. The Wildcats then tried three power plays through the line and gained about six yards. Robert Duff came in to punt and the ball traveled about twenty yards with no return.

Broadway got a few yards and on fourth down Bruce Williams punted. Walkertown got a first down but failed to run and had to punt again. The punt sailed to the three yard line and out-of-bounds as the quarter ended with the score Walkertown 0, Broadway 0.

Broadway tried a crossback and gained eight yards. The White Eyes then tried a pitch-out pass but Darryl Hayes ran Olinger for about ten yards and with the help of Bert Elam finally pulled him down at the one yard line. On fourth down, Bruce Williams again punted to the 44 yard line of Broadway. He barely got the kick away because of pressure by the Wildcats.

On the first play, Darryl Hayes dropped back to pass and threw to Danny Combs who got a key block from Bert Elam and ran to the six yard line. Walkertown's quarterback faked to the right halfback, Wendell Pelley, and almost immediately the whole line was on him, but Hayes handed to Danny Combs who romped over for the score untouched with three seconds remaining in the half. Walkertown tried the same play to the opposite side and the extra point was good. At halftime the score was Walkertown 7, Broadway 0.

The second half was composed mostly of defense with neither team getting past the 50 yard line. The third quarter ended with the score Walkertown 7, Broadway 0.

There was little action until late in the fourth quarter. Mac Baker caught a long pass and what appeared to be a touch-down. However, Robert Duff caught him on the 10 yard line. The play was called back and time ran out with Walkertown winning 7-0.

Jack Campbell, Lindon Fields, Mickey Bowling, Charles Ruck, and Dave Little played very well on the line while Emanuel Jones, Danny Combs and Wendell Pelley picked up valuable yardage on the ground for Walkertown.

Walkertown ended the season with a 6-1 record and the trophy.

Pvt. Joe Shepherd Participates In Army Exercise

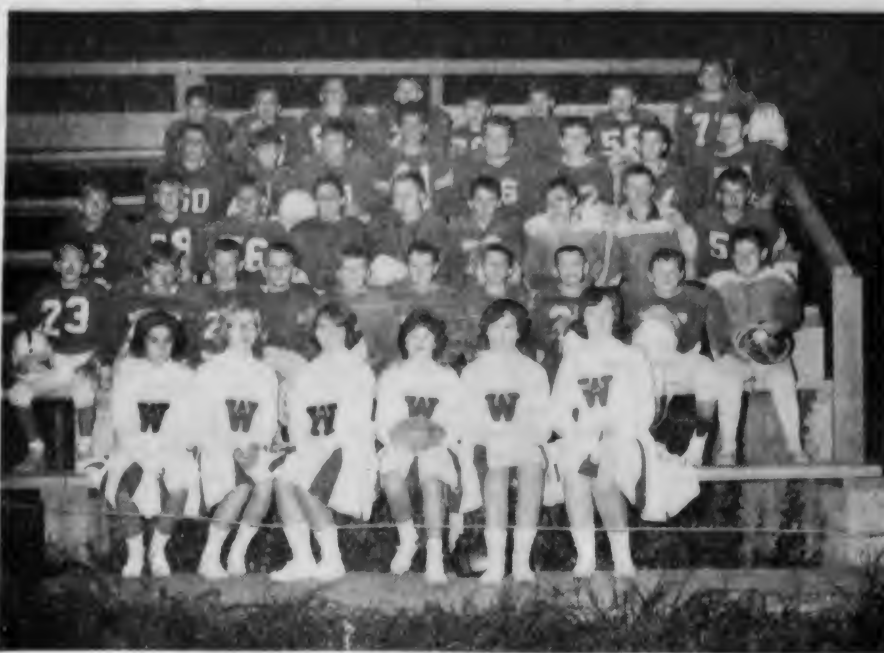

Army Pvt. Joe H. Shepherd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Shepherd, 434 Poplar St., Hazard and other members of the 1st Infantry Division are scheduled to participate in Exercise GOLD FIRE I, a 16-day field training exercise to be conducted in the vicinity of Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., beginning October 29.

Sheppard will participate as a machinegunner with Joint Task Force Sioux, one of the combat forces involved in the exercise. About 20,000 men will take part in the maneuver.

The exercise, involving two opposing forces, Joint Task Force Sioux and Joint Task Force Ozark, is designed to test and evaluate the suitability of the U. S. Air Force concept for improving the use of aviation in support of Army ground forces. Sioux forces will use current doctrines and procedures of troop tactics while Ozark will employ the new concept of support and attack.

Sheppard, assigned to Company C, 1st Battalion in the division's 28th Infantry regularly stationed at Fort Riley, Kan., entered the Army last March and completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky.

The 24-year-old soldier attended Hazard High School.

Napier To Play Fleming-Neon

By Arlis Fields

The M. C. Napier Navajos a touch of flu complicated by a leg injury sustained last week end. The M. C. Napier Navajos find themselves with a big problem as they prepare for their halloween contest with the Fleming-Neon Pirates in the Letcher County community Saturday night.

After last weekend's 26-13 loss to Prestonsburg, Guy Olinger indicated Tuesday that if Mac can't go sophomore Charles Jones will get the number one shot at his halfback spot.

As a rule so far this season Fleming-Neon has made it rough on Class A competition while Class AA foes have caused trouble for Raymond Isaac's crew. The Pirates hold a win over Elkhorn City, a tie with Paintsville and a good defensive effort against Hazard.

Heading the attack for the treasure hunters is halfback Willis Tolliver. The senior star is described as a good runner that will hurt you if he sees daylight. Defense has been the strong point for Fleming-Neon while Napier's defensive unit has been pretty tough to operate against.

The Navajos have been in heavy preparation for this one as they would like to take these last two outings to make their record 4-8.

Game time is 8 p.m., Saturday night in Fleming-Neon.

Hazard Meets Evarts Friday In Region 4 Class AA Encounter

By Monte Gross

The Hazard High School Bulldogs journey to Evarts Friday night for an important Region Four Class AA encounter. The Bulldogs lay their 8-0 record on the line against an Evarts team that must win to stay alive in the District One, Region Four race. The Wildcats along with Middlesboro and Cumberland are part of a three team scramble for the District One title. Hazard has clinched the District Two crown.

After an early season loss to Cumberland the Wildcats have come on to win every regional encounter. Two weeks ago in another must game Evarts up-ended previously unbeaten but tied Middlesboro 13-0 to create the three team race. Last week they were upset by Class A powerhouse Lynch 13-6 who will visit Hazard in two weeks.

The Bulldogs who have not been scored on in their last three outings could be in for their sternest test of the season. Evarts plays a solid brand of football and the success of their season depends on a victory this Friday so Hazard should be in for quite a tussle.

First string halfback Houston Hugg will not see action as he is still recuperating from a separated shoulder injury he sustained in the Fleming game.

A game of significant interest to Bulldog fans should be the Highlands-Covington Holmes contest this Friday. Both are in the state's top ten. The winner will be the Region Three champ and will have to go on the road to face the Region Four champ which we hope will be Hazard.

Prestonsburg Wins Over Napier 26-13 In Weekend Games

Scores from last weekend: Middlesboro 34 Harlan 7; Morgan County 44 Bath County 25; Paintsville 20 Fleming-Neon 20; Cumberland 24 Corbin 20; Catlettsburg 41 Wheelwright 0; Belfry 26 Matewan (W. Va.) 14; Lynch 18 Evarts 6; Pikeville 22 M.M.I. 0; Elkhorn City 27 Whitesburg 20.

This weekend's schedule: Friday—Catlettsburg at Morgan County; Elkhorn City at Paintsville; Lynch at Harlan; Hazard at Evarts; Middlesboro at Pineville; Whitesburg at Wheelwright.

Saturday—M. C. Napier at Fleming-Neon; Williamson (W. Va.) at Belfry; Jenkins at Pikeville.

Only two local high schools saw action on the grid iron last weekend and both lost.

The injury bug hit Napier as the Navajos were upended by Prestonsburg 26-13 while Leslie County dropped a 33-6 decision to the Jenkins Cavaliers.

Hazard took the weekend off before meeting two toughies in Evarts and Lynch.

SAY YOU SAW IT IN THE HERALD

GOLDEN DAYS AHEAD WITH GOLDWATER

1. Money, real money in everybody's pocket. (Not Food Stamps, Commodities and other Dole Outs.)
2. Employment for the unemployed, cash they can spend any where.
3. Improvement Programs for our parks, rivers, streams, forests, land reclamation, rural roads, irrigation projects, general land improvement. To give our unemployed an income and at the same time help nature to provide through our improvement programs for our children and their children.
4. A Civil Rights Program that is fair to everyone, not a one-sided issue.
5. By more employment and income for everybody, we'll have more contentment and less dissension. Stop the riots in the streets.
6. Stop buying votes with tax payers money.
7. Stop so much Government intervention in private enterprise.
8. Who said Goldwater is for cutting Social Security? He is for more and stronger Social Security. And is for more for the aged people. They deserve more.
9. Don't be sucked in with all these gimmick schemes, which we have had since 1932. These promises only lead to false unsound Government. Real money, cash income needs to replace the dole out system. Money in everybody's pocket makes a happy contented America, and that is what we want and that is what you are promised by the sound leadership of Barry Goldwater.
10. Less money thrown away in foreign lands means more money at home. Help only those countries that would help themselves and the ones that appreciate America.
11. To draw the line and deal firmly with Communism.
12. Stop the waste, make our dollar stronger by proper use.
13. Create an interest in God in our schools. Teach our children good sound moral government as we can only build a good strong nation with good children.

How about it Mr. Taxpayer? Do you want to support gimmick programs or employment improvement programs?

A LAST SERIOUS THOUGHT: Mr. Goldwater advocates at least three-man control of nuclear power. Mr. Johnson wants his finger only on the trigger, which is dangerous.

How about it Fellow Americans, shall we CONTINUE with:

1. Corruption in Government.
2. Laxity in schools. (Moral decay—abstain teaching of God in schools.)
3. Riots in the streets.
4. The Government choking a one-sided civil rights program down our throats.
5. We are told that we cannot transact business with whom we please.
6. We are told where to send our children to school.
7. We are told how much we can grow on our farms.
8. Business is constantly harrassed by government intervention.
9. Communism is constantly, silently creeping in all around us, as the present Administration believes in appeasement.
10. Bankrupting our Nation and exhausting our resources by continued waste. How could any Government Official hope to outshine a record like this?

Have You Heard The Falsehoods About Urban Renewal?

In a last-minute effort to defeat the North Main Street Urban Renewal Project, the opposition is spreading misleading and false information. Here are a few examples, with the facts printed under them:

False Statement: The City has no funds to finance installation of sewer and water lines in the North Main Street area, after renewal.

The True Fact: Hazard already has on hand ample reserve funds for the expansion of sewer and water lines in the project area.

False Statement: The City has no plans or funds for a parking lot or park in the renewal area.

The True Fact: The City has, in its parking lot reserve fund, more than enough money to put up its share of matching funds for the construction of a parking facility in the North Main Street section of town. Trees, shrubbery, flowers and grass will be donated for a small, downtown park.

False Statement: Urban Renewal will cause an increase in your taxes.

True Fact: Urban Renewal will not cause any increase in taxes and it is in no way connected with the local tax dollar.

False Statement: There are no existing plans or funds for the building of anything in the renewal area.

The True Fact: The following letter from State Highway Commissioner Henry Ward describes the Highway Department's commitment to build a new two-way street through the project area:

To Mayor Dawahare and City Commissioners:

This letter is written to confirm the fact that on March 4, 1963, I approved an order for surveys and plans for .41 miles of KY. 15 to be constructed through the North Main Street Urban Renewal Project Area. It is a policy of this Department, a policy that I have repeated in speeches throughout the Commonwealth, that orders for surveys and plans are never to be issued unless a new highway improvement is to be actually constructed.

Funds have been budgeted for this project, and we can proceed with it when the City of Hazard furnishes the right of way for this project.

The present plans call for a re-aligned 42 feet wide highway through the Urban Renewal Project Area, thus permitting traffic from the Bus Station and Post Office Building to travel in both directions.

Sincerely Yours,
HENRY WARD
State Highway Commissioner

These are but a few examples of the kind of falsehoods to which the opposition to urban renewal is resorting in an effort to stop the North Main Street Project. But Hazard's elected City officials, Mayor Willie Dawahare, Commissioners C. B. Feltner, Dr. Eli C. Boggs, Dr. M. B. Payne and C. Jack Burnett, are unanimous in their support of the North Main Street Project. Your YES vote is a vote of confidence in these men. It is a vote of confidence in your City's future growth.

Be sure to listen to radio station WKIC Monday, November 2, for more facts on urban renewal, presented by Chairman of the Hazard Urban Renewal Commission, Mr. Curt Feltner. Mr. Feltner can be heard at the following times Monday: 7:55 a.m., 9:05 a.m., 10:55 a.m., 1:55 p.m., 2:55 p.m., 4:05 p.m. and 5:25 p.m.

SWOTA Gives Teachers Holiday; Writer Fixes Batch of Biscuits

by Green L. Hamblin

As I start to write this, at least I'm not hungry. For I caught all my folks bone and fixed me a bait.

Today was our SWOTA (same as U.K.R.E.A. there). Due to the extra half holiday the rest went to Kentucky. I came home and fixed me a batch of biscuits like grandma used to fix. You remember the kind they were—a little yellow inside, with a smell just out of this world as you broke one open.

It was a mixture of good uncultured buttermilk, soda, wheat and fat. When they were baked, some had thick edges and thin. But always the ones in the middle were thick and had 5 or 6 sides—as many as there had been biscuits around them.

Then with red sap, strong coffee, and gravy you really had something—not like a piece of dry, saw dusty, burnt toast.

So about 2 o'clock I made me some—eleven to be exact. Then with pork chops and fried apples I went to town. I put one pie tin with 6, that hadn't baked so brown, in the freezer.

to save and reheat for hard times. Once in a while I choke some out to give my children something else to be proud of their daddy over.

The late John D. Begley, who was Leslie County School Superintendent, and a first cousin of mine, said he would occasionally get so hungry for those big, yellow, choked out biscuits, that he could hardly stand it.

With that good kind, like the matrons of Leslie, Perry, and Clay surely knew how to make, you didn't have to think of eating too often.

Sad to say, now so many folks think a good meal is a hunk of bologna and a bottle of pop.

"It takes the average housewife about four checkbooks to fill one stamp book!"

Delaware Powder Is Represents Of National Firm

Oscar Warren of the Delaware Powder Company, Pine Street, Pineville, Kentucky, with a branch office at Lohair, has announced the appointment of his organization to serve as local representative of The Lincoln Electric Company of Cleveland, Ohio, world's largest manufacturer of arc welding equipment. This representation will include, he stated in the announcement, local stocking of Lincoln's complete line of Jet-weld, Fleetweld, Stainweld and hardsurfacing electrodes for production and maintenance welding. Also to be supplied by this representation is Lincoln's line of arc welding machines and accessories including: small shop transformer welders, production shop transformers, motor-generator and rectifier type welders, and field units for welding and auxiliary current powered by air-cooled, gasoline and diesel engines.

The Lincoln Electric Company, established in 1895, has become the world's leader in the field of arc welding through a well known and long practiced policy of incentive management which has as its principle objective the reduction of selling prices as manufacturing costs are reduced. Some Lincoln welders and electrodes sell for less than they did 25 years ago.

North of Hazard on Hwy. 15
"WHERE MA SAVES PA'S MONEY"

Speech By R. W. Gibson, Former City Commissioner

I am very much interested in the completion of North Main Street Urban Renewal Project and the other two Urban Renewal Projects now under way in the City of Hazard, — the High Street or hospital Project and the Liberty Street Project. The final completion of these projects will be a great step forward for our City. The question of the further development of this North Main Street Project is now before the people of Hazard in a Referendum Election to be held on the regular election day, November 3. I deem this election of the utmost importance to the City of Hazard, in my mind it ranks in importance with the election of 1937, by which the people of Hazard adopted the City Commission—City Manager form of Government, and the election of November 3, 1959, when the people of Hazard voted a $500,000 General Obligation Bond Issue for the construction of a Sewage Disposal Plant, which is now in operation. The City of Hazard is known throughout the country as one of the most progressive small cities in this state. The defeat of the North Main Street Urban Renewal Project, by a vote of the people would be a decided step backward for our City.

Following the death of former Mayor Gene Baker, I was appointed to fill a vacancy on the Board of Commissioners, created by the elevation of Douglas Combs to the office of Mayor, and I served under this appointment for the remainder of 1956 and through 1957. On July 16, 1958, I was again appointed as a member of the Board of Commissioners. This appointment resulted from the City becoming a Third Class City. I served until the November election. At the regular election in 1960, I was elected as a member of the Board and served two years and was re-elected as a member of the Board of Commissioners for a two year term in 1961. I was not a candidate in the election in 1963. The three Urban Renewal Projects mentioned were all begun by the Board of Commissioners of the City during my membership on the Board, and I was in favor of the North Main Street Project as well as the other two and voted for them, under the firm belief that these were progressive steps for the City to take, and in keeping with the activities and the policy of other progressive towns and cities which were seeking to take advantage of the prof. fered aid of the Federal Government and the State of Kentucky, in slum-clearance, area development and Urban Renewal Projects generally.

My business brings me in contact with many people living elsewhere, especially traveling people, and traveling salesmen in particular. I hear it frequently mentioned by visitors to Hazard, mostly business men, how uninviting the approach to the Main Business section of Hazard, through North Main Street, appears to a stranger or non-resident entering the City from the North and West. These visitors, of course, take note of the dilapidated buildings in this four or five block area, the junk yards, houses partly destroyed by fire and made unfit for human habitation, the old and unsightly county jail, the vacant lots grown up in weeds and the narrow one way street leading into the business section of the city. The completion of the North Main Street Project will change the image of Hazard in this respect, and will provide a more inviting and modern view for the greatly increased number of visitors to our city, including many tourists, whom we may expect when Mountain Parkway is finally completed into Hazard, and eventually beyond Hazard.

Of course, there is opposition, brought about apparently by self interest and a reluctance to disturb the status quo. There has been opposition to every progressive step this city has taken. However, I cannot believe that the people of Hazard will stop progress at this point. If we do, we will certainly not stand still, we will go backward, and that will certainly not be in keeping with the recent history of this City. There was opposition to Hazard's first Urban Renewal Project, Parking Lot No. 1, at the end of the depot bridge. It was argued a parking lot was not needed, that people could park their cars on Main Street close to the stores; but this little parking lot soon proved inadequate to meet the needs of this City. Incidentally this project did away with the notorious "Fulp Corridor" and the site of the "Hub", and an open sewer in the form of a branch running through the whole area.

This first Urban Renewal Project in Hazard is a good illustration of the City's efforts in recent years toward civic improvement, with the help of agencies of the Federal Government and the State Government. Before all the mud and debris left by the 1957 flood had been cleared away, the first steps were taken by former City Manager, Hobert Wootton, to get this project underway. It was the first project of the kind completed in Kentucky under the act of Congress authorizing such undertakings by cities, and this fact was commended on far and wide.

There was opposition to the construction of the big parking lot, No. 2 on the By-Pass Road. It was argued that it was too far from Main Street and would hurt business on Main Street.

The City's attempt to open up Lovern Street between the By-Pass and High Street met with bitter opposition. The court even ruled against the city and it took a decision of the Court of Appeals of Kentucky before the city could make the cut through the ridge and connect the parking lot and the By-Pass Road with High Street and Main Street.

The North Main Street Project will not cause any increase in property taxes. The plans call for additional parking space and for a part of the territory between the street or Highway 15 and the river to be converted into a city park. The area above or to the east of the street will be set apart for business establishments.

The Department of Highways of Kentucky will bring the Mountain Parkway right into the front door of the business section of Hazard. In order to do this two river bridges have been constructed and a mountain cut in two by the deepest highway cut in Kentucky. This short section of road, leading into this section of Highway 15, from Combs to Hazard, is enough in itself to attract visitors to Hazard. The least that this city can do is to improve North Main Street, which will be the main entrance to Hazard from the north, when the Mountain Parkway is completed. And it should be remembered that this great mountain thoroughfare bypasses the other towns and county seats between Winchester and Hazard, but comes directly into Main Street from where it crosses as Highway 80 at Combs, Kentucky.

Another matter the people of Hazard should keep in mind in connection with the attempt which is now being made to stop the North Main Street Urban Renewal Project at this point, and that is this; in all probability what is known as the Appalachian Bill, which has already been passed by the Senate, will be favorably acted upon by the lower House of Congress when Congress reconvenes. This bill provides for substantial help to the whole Appalachian area in the way of roads, new hospitals and other public improvements. If and when this bill passes, certainly if it passes in its present form, an attempt will be made by the City of Hazard to secure further aid from the Federal Government for the construction of a new hospital. The City will be greatly embarrassed in making such a request if one of the three Urban Renewal Projects now under way, is discontinued by a vote of the people of the City.

The question you will find on the ballot at the November election is a simple one: "ARE YOU IN FAVOR OF THE NORTH MAIN STREET URBAN RENEWAL PROJECT?" I hope the people of Hazard will vote yes on this important question and that Hazard will not be stopped in its efforts to become a more attractive city and a better place in which to live.

I thank you.

Hospitals Cooperating With Accident Prevention Program

Fourteen hospitals in a six-county eastern Kentucky area have been cooperating with the accident prevention program of the State Department of Health by reporting all accident cases they treat. During August and September these hospitals treated 1,162 accident cases. The population of the region is 231,200.

This project in Bell, Harlan, Letcher, Leslie, Perry, and Pike Counties is aimed at getting at the basic cause of accidents which are one of the principal causes of death and disability in Kentucky and nationwide. It is being financed by a grant from the U. S. Public Health Service to the State Department of Health. Local medical societies, hospital administrators, and county health department personnel in all the counties co-operated in planning the project.

Attendance at the Christian Church and Sunday School Sunday was 48; the offering was $9.48.

Our dinner guest Sunday was our daughter, Jane Combs. We ate dinner at her house yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stidham sponsored a birthday shower for Aunt Dellie Couch at their home Friday. They surely had a nice dinner. Aunt Dellie got so many nice and useful things. Mrs. Stidham had a quilting and some mighty good things to eat.

Next came injuries from motor vehicle accidents and cutting and piercing objects which accounted for 158 and 153 accidents respectively. Other accidents reported resulted from machinery, hand tools, transport other than by motor, thrown and falling articles, collision, hitting, animals, fire, hot objects, poisoning and chemicals, explosion, fire arms, mashing, and physical effort. The fewest number of accidents reported from any single cause, five, resulted from fire.

School Dropouts Discussed By

Michigan High School Principal

A PRINCIPAL SPEAKS HIS PIECE "The Academic 'Mohammed' And The Vocational 'Mountain'"

By Robert W. Young
Principal, Dearborn, Michigan, High School

In recent years educators have emphasized the achievement of self-realization, through logic, problem solving, appreciations, and group identification. Great effort has been expended to accomplish the development of the whole individual. Vocational education, which can offer many of these conditions as its accomplishment, seems to have been completely overlooked.

The person who has never engaged in work to produce or to provide materials or services cannot fully appreciate his fellow beings, most of whom work in this manner. Talking about the dignity of work is not a suitable substitute for experiencing it.

Opportunities to use logic, to solve problems, to be a functional member of a group, are abundantly present in vocational classes. These are sufficient reasons for involving all students in vocational education, but when one considers the 40-percent dropout rate in the nation's high schools, there can be little doubt about the importance of vocational classes.

Any principal or counselor can tell you that most of the dropouts are "fugitives" from a college-prep program or a general-education course, so closely related that the two are indistinguishable. It is also clear that colleges and universities have a dropout problem of their own. Strangely, however, attempts to broaden education have resulted in increases in academic requirements. Paradoxically, students who need the most help are expected to gain it by indulging in more of that which frustrated them in the first instance.

Perhaps it is time for "Mohammed" to "come to the moon." (To Be Continued Next Monday)

Hazard, Kentucky

Lets Trade In These Eyesores . . . For A Modern Concept Of Hazard

Perry County Jail is perhaps the most eyesore on North Main Street.

Sights like this one on North Main Street make an unfavorable first impression on visitors to Hazard.

Urban renewal would clear away these hulks and others like them on North Main Street.

Standard buildings like these are common on North Main Street. Urban renewal would replace this type structure to pave the way for modern buildings. Current property owners have priority in repurchasing renewed lots.

Hazard Needs Urban Renewal

After a rash of early and false rumors, the voters of Hazard are now in possession of the true facts about the North Main Street Urban Renewal Project. They are now sifting this information, pondering the ultimate effect upon Hazard of going through with the project or abandoning it. Hazard's choice between these two courses will be determined at the polls next Tuesday.

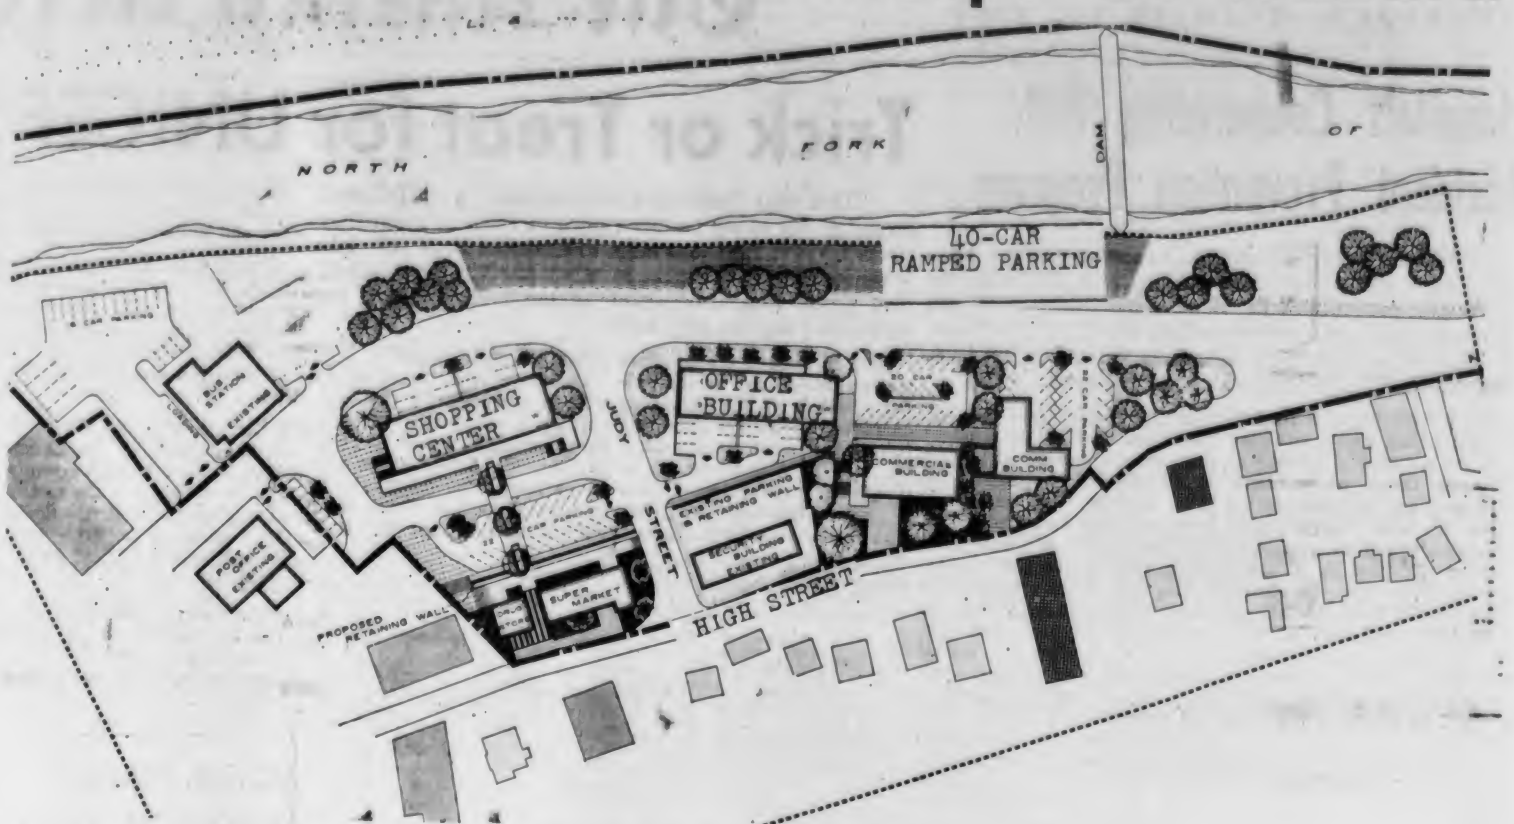

If the accompanying illustrations do not convince Hazard voters of the worthiness of the project, they need only look at those other local projects already completed or in the process of completion. Does any voter contend that the city made a mistake when it renewed the old section of town near the railroad depot bridge? Can anyone argue that Liberty Street is not being made vastly more livable, through the urban renewal going on there now?

As he makes up his mind, the voter should ask himself what Hazard would be now without those and other renewal projects, and the several other city improvements they encouraged. He should also try to imagine what Hazard might become if it quits now and settles for a stagnant status quo.

The position of the few property owners in the North Main area who are fighting the project is of course understandable. The inconvenience to property owners has always been the most serious argument against such things as urban renewal, highway construction and dam building, but no stride forward has ever been made without causing some friction and personal inconvenience. The Mountain Parkway runs across what use to be private property. Buckhorn Lake covers ground where men at one time farmed. And the North Main Urban Renewal Project will displace some people who resent it. This is regrettable. The only thing to do about it is compensate the people with money. This has been done. It will be done again on North Main Street.

A few property owners in the North Main area refuse to be satisfied with financial compensation and are working hard to oppose the renewal, spreading a dozen points of view against the basic concept of urban renewal. Their energy is to be admired. But somehow their arguments lack force and conviction. They sound very much like those people in the 1920's who fought concrete sidewalks in Hazard because the plank-walks they had back then were made of such good wood.

This kind of thinking serves the community no good purpose. Fortunately, only a few feel that way, as we shall see on election day when thinking citizens vote "yes" for urban renewal.

Artists's Concept of Future North Main Street

The drawing above shows how the North Main Street section of Hazard might look some day, if voters approve continuance of the urban renewal project in that neighborhood. Plans call for the razing of outmoded structures to make room for modern replacements, as suggested in the drawing. A shopping center, multi-purpose office building, downtown park and new auto parking facilities are some of the suggested uses for the land along the entrance to downtown Hazard.

OUR READERS WRITE

Opposes Urban Renewal

I am opposed to this project, not because it would affect me in any material way, but because it is utterly unnecessary and I believe would hurt the City instead of helping. I hate to see good buildings, business buildings, and homes which people in the past have had erected with their hard earned money torn down and utterly destroyed just because we are able to get money from the Federal Government to pay the cost of it. Wonder what we will do when the Government goes broke and is unable to give us any more. When a building is torn down and destroyed, like the Court House, for instance, it means that much wealth and property is gone forever.

I understand the plan is to tear down and demolish all the buildings between Campbell and the intersection of High Street and North Main, lying between High and Main, except the Educational Building, and then tear down and destroy all the buildings on the west side of Main and between Main and River on down to the Gulf Filling Station below the Ned Turner building. Then to let the City sell all the property between Main and High to people who might want to rebuild, and then that property on the west of Main and between Main and the River, to make it into a Park. Now, just who is going to buy this property and rebuild? It has been said that the future of Hazard and this territory lies in the tourist trade. Now about the only money tourists spend goes to filling stations and Motels. They do not create any jobs. They do not furnish employment to any one.

If this project goes through just look at the good, well constructed buildings which will be demolished and destroyed. Look at the number of people it will put out of employment.

If you feel as I do about this matter you will vote "No" at the coming November election.

—SAM WARD.

Supports Urban Renewal

The purpose of this letter is to give the Citizens of Hazard some facts about Urban Renewal and Public Housing as it affects our City.

The present Housing Projects were built on property that yielded the City less than $200.00 per year in taxes. These Projects are now in full operation and will pay the City approximately $2000.00 per year in lieu of taxes. In addition, the Housing Projects pay the City an average of $350.00 per month for water service. The City was not required to hire any extra labor to gain this extra income.

More than 50% of the families now living in the Projects came from outside the City. This means these additional families are now residents of Hazard and spend their income with the merchants of Hazard.

Urban Renewal and Public Housing work together very closely, as in the case of Liberty St. This area is now being purchased by Urban Renewal and they will make all improvements, walks. When this work is completed, the area will be turned over to Public Housing for the construction of an additional 30 units. These units are now under contract by the Public Housing Administration. This will mean quite a bit of additional revenue to the City and merchants. The improvements which have been completed, and the ones which are planned, will not cost the Citizens of Hazard anything.

Hazard should take advantage of the Federal offer to help improve the City, especially since it will not cause any increase in taxes. If it is rejected, your Federal taxes certainly will not be lowered, and the money that is available for Hazard will be spent in some other City.

FRED SNYDER, Executive Director
Municipal Housing Commission

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Nolan:

You did us a great favor by publishing the article about the background, makeup and facilities of Appalachian Regional Hospitals in your issue of October 8, and I want you to know we are most grateful.

Children Come First

When Perry County voters go to the polls next Tuesday to choose the men who will sit on the County School Board the next four years, their over-riding concern should be for one thing only: the children.

That the children have been exclusively ignored in the past when school boards in Eastern Kentucky were elected is perhaps the great tragedy of our times. Historically, the vote has gone for the man who was your cousin, or friend, or the man who could give you a job in the school system, no matter how poorly educated or otherwise unqualified the candidate was. Some of our present Board Members were selected on precisely that kind of ticket.

Three seats are up for election this year. Competing for them are the three incumbents, and four challengers, two of them in District Two. The candidates have all been campaigning for several weeks now, and, with election day less than a week off, a definable pattern has emerged. The challengers have publicly proclaimed their ideas and aspirations as office seekers. The incumbents are strangely silent.

The inference here is that the incumbents are content to run on their records, to let their actions and decisions of the last four years tell the kind of men they are. If an office-holder's record is good, then this approach to a campaign can be effective. But in the case of these particular incumbents, it is hard to see why they are proud of the record they, as part of the present School Board, have made.

Perhaps their greatest claim to accomplishment these last years is the building of new elementary schools in the respective districts. Well, a new school is always welcome. But Perry County voters should understand that these new schools are exclusively the result of something the State of Kentucky did, by putting up most of the necessary funds. The School Board, including the members now running for reelection, had only to decide where to put the buildings. Again, it is hard to understand why either candidate would be proud of his hand in these decisions, particularly at Buckhorn and Big Creek. Those schools, admittedly fine buildings, are both in creek beds, in constant threat of flooding by dangerous and temperamental mountain streams that on very short notice, can become raging torrents and flood the school grounds.

The record the incumbents are running on includes other decisions that seem to call for shame rather than pride. One is the sorry mess involving the Viper elementary school. Remember that one? The candidate from the Viper district isn't running this year, but all three incumbents who had a hand in that boondoggle are. The caliber of their school leadership is reflected very clearly in that incident, for they went along with an obviously wrong decision as if strings were about their necks.

The Board originally agreed to purchase a beautiful site for the new Viper school, on a gently-sloping hillside adjacent to the main highway, centrally located for the majority of Viper elementary students. This seemed like the proper course, and for a time those parents at Viper had reason to be pleased with the work of the Board. But then came a change in office for the representative from the Viper district. And with this change came a curious change in the attitude of the Board, too. The first site for the new Viper school was suddenly dismissed, for no announced reason, and eventually moved far up in Mason's Creek, to a poor site by all standards that, just by coincidence, was owned by a close relative of one of the Board members. Did either of the incumbents seeking reelection protest this maneuver, in the interest of the children? Did either of the incumbents seeking reelection pay any heed at all to the scores of parents who pleaded for the location of the school in a better place? No. They just went along.

Then, just this past summer, there was the Bill Back incident. Remember that one? Bill Back was the highly-respected coach and teacher at Dilce Combs High School who was summarily dismissed from his coaching job (and replaced by a man with fewer qualifications) and shipped off to a school twenty five miles from his home. The only reason given for the move was that some citizens of the Jeff community asked that Back be moved. It has since become apparent that, if any citizens ever did make such a request, it was no more than a few. For the vast majority of parents whose children attended Dilce Combs knew Bill Back for the good teacher that he is. But did either of the incumbents now seeking reelection inquire into Back's case to see if he was being treated fairly? Did either of them offer to hear his side of the story? No. With the exception of Dacker Combs, all Board Members, like sheep, voted to dismiss Back, with no questions asked.

What are this Board's plans for the future of our schools? What personal initiative is this Board taking to draw up a realistic curriculum for the schools? How is it trying to provide a better physical fitness program, or to deal with Perry County's problem of retarded children?

The answers to all these questions are negative, because Perry County children are not being considered before politics, personal whim and petty grudges. The voters should keep these things in mind when they go to the polls next Tuesday.

The picture at left (is a bit hazy but it shows the gently-sloping terrain that would have been an ideal site for the new Viper school. The site abuts the main highway near Viper. The School Board originally voted to build the new school here. But subsequently, the Board changed its mind and built the school on Mason's Creek, two miles from Viper, on expensive land purchased from the son-in-law of a School Board member. The new school is shown at right. A beautiful, well-equipped building, it sits in a creek bottom on a site dug from a steep incline.

We Need Carl D. Perkins

The election next Tuesday of Kentucky's Seventh District Representative to the United States Congress gives Eastern Kentuckians a rare opportunity to show their loyalty to their native region and to their political party.

They can do this by voting to send to Congress the Hon. Carl D. Perkins of Hindman.

In sixteen years of continuous service as Seventh District Representative, Mr. Perkins has shown that his interests are exclusively in this Eastern Kentucky region, and all its people. A champion of the miner, the truck driver, the hillside farmer and aged pensioner, Mr. Perkins has also won the respect of the white-collar class through his enthusiastic support of measures to help solve small-town problems of the type Hazard and Viper find themselves faced with.

Mr. Perkins' position in Congress is one that Republicans and Democrats alike can be proud of. He is well-known in Congress, an intimate of Presidents and Congressional leaders of both parties. He is the ranking Democrat on the House Education Sub-committee. The federal government's growing concern with Eastern Kentucky's economic and social problems is largely a result of his eloquent voicing of those problems. He has sponsored legislation that established job-training programs, and has supported anti-poverty measures such as the Economic Opportunity Act and The Appalachian Bill.

Since Mr. Perkins has represented the Seventh District in Congress, Perry County has seen Buckhorn Dam become a reality, and the Carr Fork Reservoir a guaranteed thing for the future. These are just two examples of many ways in which Mr. Perkins has helped Perry County, not to mention the hundreds of instances in which his office has been of help to individuals with individual problems.

Mr. Perkins' record is distinguished. Eastern Kentuckians owe it to themselves to keep this fine man as their Representative in the United States Congress.

 - Will help keep politics out of the school system.
 - Better education facilities for your children.
 - Paying the classroom teacher a full 100% salary.
 - A hot lunch for every child, whether he or she can afford to pay for it.
 - To put the 4-H Club activities and music back into the school program at Buckhorn. This has been eliminated by the principal, who is the son-in-law of the present board member.
 - To put Industrial Arts and Woodworking Shop back into the school program. (This is very important to all High School boys.)
 - Pressure will not be applied to force anyone out of the school system.
 - A fair and honest placement of teachers, regardless of family connections.
 - Safe school buses for every child. Overcrowded conditions should be eliminated.
- My opponent is electioneering in one area of my district for the present superintendent. He is also telling the people in another area that he is for a different person for superintendent. FAIRBANKS, Oct. 22 — Three Mercury Comets today finished a run no car has ever attempted in so short a time — the rugged 16,200-mile grind from Cape Horn to Fairbanks.

En route, day and night, the cars had no major repairs, just routine maintenance. That's ample proof that 1965 Comets are powerful and tough, not just lively and beautiful.

Bottom to top, 16,200 miles.

In South America, Spring was near. Thaws flooded the roads.

Passing abandoned gold refinery at Antofagasta, northern Chile.

Good city roads were relief for drivers after rugged stretches.

NEW Old Fitzgerald

Try Old Fitz Prime Straight...86.8 proof mild, 8 years mellow!

We think Old Fitz Prime Straight is the most flavorful Bourbon ever bottled at such gentle proof. Here's why:

Like your Bourbon mild? Fine... but mildness alone never made a whiskey great. Only great flavor can do that.

Now, in OLD FITZ PRIME STRAIGHT, you get the mildness you're looking for... plus the mellow, "smoothed-out" flavor you've waited for. We've gentled it to an easy-going 86.8 proof... mighty mild! But that's only half the story.

It takes Time to be Prime. Our "new" Fitzgerald has been naturally aged for eight years—brought to a prime maturity of flavor which milder-run whiskeys never achieve. It's drawn from barrels laid down for our vintage quality Very Old FITZGERALD... which connoisseurs regard as the most prized Bourbon in the world. Only recently have we been able to age enough to make Old Fitz Prime STRAIGHT possible.

Compare Old Fitz Prime Straight with your present whiskey—or with any premium Bourbon you can find that approaches it in age and pedigree. Check prices, too. See if Old Fitz PRIME STRAIGHT doesn't measure up on all counts. Mighty mild...mighty mellow...mighty reasonable!

How to tell the "new" from the "old": We've designed a new gold-capped bottle for Old Fitz PRIME... and shaded the label to an attractive limestone grey-green. So there won't be any confusion between Original Old Fitz Bottled-in-Bond and Old Fitz PRIME STRAIGHT. Of course, there will be no change in the appearance, contents, or availability of Bonded Old FITZ.

Try Old Fitz PRIME STRAIGHT. Mighty mild...mighty mellow! We can't think of any reason you wouldn't want to adopt it. Unless you're already a Bonded Old Fitz man... in which case we salute your good taste and invite you to carry on!
